Sir:

Applicant has received the Notification of Defective Response dated December 27, 2005 (copy attached). Applicant notes that this Notification requested clarification of the different last name on the Declaration submitted on August 10, 2005, versus the International Application.

Attached herewith is an Affidavit, signed by the attorney for the Applicant, which indicates that Ms. Kati A. KOHO, who signed the Declaration which was submitted on August 10, 2005, is the same person as Kati A. LEHTINEN, in whose name the application was originally filed. Though Ms. KOHO/LEHTINEN is currently on maternity leave and unavailable to sign any document within the time periods set out in the Notification, Applicant submits that the attached Affidavit explains the difference in names, and explains that it is the same person whose is named in the International Application and who signed the Declaration in this U.S. application.

It is therefore respectfully requested that the Response and the Declaration which was filed on August 10, 2005 be accepted, and this application be passed to the appropriate technology center for examination.

AFFIDAVIT IN SUPPORT OF CHANGED-NAME OF INVENTOR

Commissioner for Patents
P.O. Box 1450
Alexandria, VA 22313-1450

Sir:

1) I, Douglas H. Goldhush, hereby certify that I am a registered United States patent attorney who has been engaged to represent the inventor and the assignee of the above-referenced U.S. patent application, regarding the filing and prosecution thereof.

2) I further certify that the PCT International Application upon which this United States patent application is based was filed in the name of Kati A. LEHTINEN, of Espoo, Finland, on June 18, 2002. An appropriate U.S. national stage application was filed on December 16, 2004. The application was filed on an "informal" basis, with no declaration.

3) Upon receiving the Notification of Missing Requirements dated June 16, 2005, we prepared a formal Declaration and Assignment in the name of Kati A.

LEHTINEN and sent it to the assignee in order to be signed and dated. We were alerted by the applicant's European attorneys that the inventor, Ms. Kati A. LEHTINEN, had changed her name to Kati A. KOHO. It was requested that we revise the documents to reflect this new name. It was clearly indicated, however, that Kati A. KOHO and Kati A. LEHTINEN were in fact the same person. We therefore received the signed and dated Declaration which was submitted in response to the Notification of Missing Requirements on August 10, 2005.

4) Upon receipt of the Notification of Defective Response dated December 27, 2005, we prepared a Declaration to be signed by Ms. KOHO/LEHTINEN; we were told that it would not be possible to obtain a signed affidavit from Ms. KOHO by the due date of January 27, 2006. However, we have been informed by Applicant's European representatives that Ms. Lehtinen was married on June 7, 2003, and then became Kati A. KOHO. We were also informed that Ms. Koho is currently on maternity leave, and is not available to signed the appropriate documents by the due date January 27, 2006.

In that no extensions of time are available, therefore, we prepared and hereby submit this Declaration in an effort to clarify the fact that Ms. KOHO and Ms. LEHTINEN are the same person, and are in fact the inventor of the subject matter of this patent application.

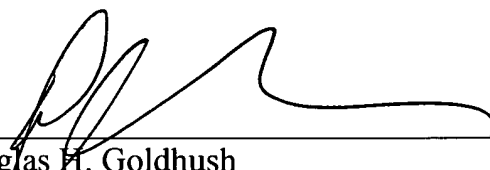

It is therefore respectfully requested that this Affidavit be accepted, along with the Declaration as submitted on August 10, 2005.

The undersigned declares further that all statements made herein are believed to be true and further that these statements were made with the knowledge that willful, false statements and the like so made are punishable by fine or imprisonment, or both, under Section 1001 of Title 18 of the United States Code and that such willful, false statements may jeopardize the validity of the application or any patent issuing thereon.
